For the last 17 years, Our Lady's Choir from Svendborg in Denmark, has been known for giving beautiful, different and intense concerts. The choir is characterized by an unusually homogeneous tone and a both classical and untraditional repertoire. Since its initiation in 2002, Our Lady's Choir has presented and spread the knowledge of polyphonic vocal music. The aim is to perform both old and contemporary rhythmic and classic vocal music with religious or existential content.

The choir consist of 16 singers and has previously toured in the south of Spain, in Germany, Assisi in Italy and in the Canary Islands. Povl Christian Balslev, who has given concerts as a soloist, accompanist, chamber musician and carillon player around the world, conducts the Choir.
