

Mapping of the Moon

Introduction to the Full Moon Concert and its composers

19 July at 20.30 at the Danish Institute at Athens

The Danish Institute at Athens invites you for a first hand meeting with Danish composer Hans Peter Stubbe Teglbjærg and Greek composer Christos Farmakis who will introduce the background and inspiration for the Full Moon Concert at the National Observatory of Athens on 20 July. The introduction will be in English.

Hans Peter Stubbe Teglbjærg will describe his work as a composer; the Greek inspirations of yesterday and today, and his pieces for the Full Moon Concert.

Christos Farmakis will present his new work for horn and electronics, written for the Full Moon Concert.

A performance of works for solo instrument and electronics by each composer will follow.

Musicians: Veronica Stubberud (oboe), Elena Kakaliagou (horn), the composers.

This event will give the audience first hand insights to the concert at the observatory the following evening.

Admission: free.

Address: The Danish Institute at Athens, Herefondos 14, Platia Aghias Aikaterinis, Plaka, Athens 105 58, Greece.
