

THE RULE OF ALL

The Danish Institute at Athens, March 4-6, 2019

MONDAY, MARCH 4

11.15	Registration
11.45-12.00	Welcome
12.00-13.30	Keynote Peter Hallward 'The Rule of Most: Masses, Mobilisations, Majorities'
13.30-14.00	Break
14.00-16.00	Panel 1: Spontaneity, Protest and Organisation <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Leon Kunz: Democracy in Taiwan's 318 Movement- Nora Schröder: From Civil to Civic: The Anti-TTIP-protests and Europe's Democratization from Bottom-up- Natalia Buitron-Arias: Indigenous experiments with democracy: being and resisting government in Ecuadorian Amazonia
16.00-16.30	Break
16.30-18.30	Panel 2: Democratic Self-Organising <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Bahar Mahzari: Challenging Lebanese Politics-as-Usual One Neighbourhood at a Time? The Role of Local Municipal Platforms in Processes of Democratization- Riccardo Buonanno & Maria Francesca de Tullio: Commoning and Law as "Aesthetics" of New Democratic Participatory Institutions. The Case of L'Asilo in Naples- Olga Lafazani: City Plaza Squat: Challenging multiple borders
18.30-20.00	Reception at the Danish Institute
20.30	Dinner at To Kafeneion , Epicharmou 1 (Plaka)

TUESDAY, MARCH 5

09.45-11.00	Panel 3: Ecology and Municipal Government <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Sunyana Ganguly: Civil Society and State Interactions on environmental Policy in India- Rachel Carvalho: Citizen Participation in municipal environmental Management: A Proposal for Analysis to strengthen incidence in Public Environmental Policies in Brazil
11.00-11.30	Break
11.30-13.30	Panel 4: Democracies and Parties <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Matthew Myers: Searching for the mass or majoritarian class subject: Debating the left's conception of democracy between the long 1970s and post-2008 crisis in Britain, France, and Italy- George Souvlis: Syriza: Decoding the Defeat- Arbër Zaimi: Vetëvendosje: Independence and Social Justice in Kosova
13.30-14.30	Lunch Break
14.30-16.30	Panel 5: Which Demos? Nation, Race and Decolonisation <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Dina Beatriz dos Santos: The Rise and Fall of a democratic racial Pact in Brazil- Jonas van Vossolle: Demodiversity: Imaginations, contradictions and re-articulations of Democracy in context of crisis in Portugal- Francisco Venes: Plurinationality in Ecuador: from a politics of assimilation to a democratizing proj
16.30-17.00	Break
17.00-18.30	Keynote Dilar Dirik ‘Democratizing Society, Politicizing Life: Self-Determination Beyond the State in Kurdistan’
19.30	Dinner at Rozalía , Valtetsiou 59 (Exarchia)

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6

10.00-12.00	Panel 6: Whither Brazil? <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Fabício Fernandes: Rearticulating Counter-Hegemony under Post-Democratic Depoliticisation: A Contemporary Analysis on the Brazilian Case- Marcela Uchoa: Democracy, representativeness crisis and hate speech: The institutionalization of the State of Exception in Brazil- Sergio Barbosa & Andressa Liegi: What's the future of Brazil after the 2018 election? New democratizing movements emerging in civil society
12.00-13.00	Lunch Break
13.00-15.00	Panel 7: Resistance and Democratic Alternatives <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Konstantinos Poulis: What's Wrong with Fake News? Moralizing as a Weapon Against System Failures- Maria Mercone: Tourism and Urban Space: Social Movements in Naples and Southern Europe's Transnational Network against Touristification- Alexandros Kioupiolis: Counter-hegemony, the Commons and New City Politics